

The Wommack Family Ancestry and Legacy

Notes from Dottie Wommack Through the Looking Glass

How often do you look at yourself in the mirror and wonder;
Where did I get my hair, eyes, nose?
How did I end up here?
Where did we come from?

Here is my attempt to look at who we are and how we got here. The information is as factual as I could find, but I was more interested in the story of who we are, then the "black and white" of dates and places.

Some of the black and white facts about where we ended up are;

TX declared its independence from Mexico in 1836 and existed as the independent Republic of TX for nearly a decade. In 1845, it joined the United States as the 28th state.

Cass Co, TX seperated from Bowie Co and was established in 1846. It was named after Lewis Cass and is the home of the oldest continuous working courthouse (built in 1860) in TX. Linden is the Co seat of Cass Co which is located about in the center of the Co, but Jefferson was the Co seat from 1846 to 1852. Marion Co split off from Cass Co in 1860.
